

Herb Titus, J.D.

Herbert W. Titus is of counsel to the law firm of William J. Olson, P.C. The law firm's website is www.lawandfreedom.com. On that website are numerous courtroom briefs and popular articles that Dr. Titus has co-authored with members of the firm. He is engaged in a general practice with a concentration in constitutional strategy, litigation, and appeals.

.Dr. Titus holds the J.D. degree (cum laude) from Harvard and the B.S. degree in Political Science from the University of Oregon from which he graduated Phi Beta Kappa. He is an active member of the bar of Virginia and an inactive member of the bar of Oregon. He is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, the United States Court of Claims, the Army Court of Criminal Appeals, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces, and the United States Courts of Appeals for the Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth, District of Columbia and Federal Circuits. His constitutional practice has taken him into federal district courts in Alabama, Arizona, Georgia, Montana, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Texas, Wyoming, and the District of Columbia, and to state courts in Idaho, North Dakota, Texas, and Virginia.

Prior to his association with this firm, Mr. Titus taught constitutional law, common law, and other subjects for nearly thirty years at five different American Bar Association-approved law schools. In 1993, he capped his academic career, having served since 1986 as the founding Dean of the College of Law and Government in Regent University, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Prior to his academic career, he served as a Trial Attorney and a Special Assistant United States Attorney with the United States Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. and Kansas City, Missouri.

Throughout his academic and practice careers, Dr. Titus has lectured and written on a variety of topics in the fields of constitutional law and common law. He has written numerous articles, book chapters and constitutional studies potensmedel and analyses. He is the author of God, Man & Law: The Biblical Principle, a widely-acclaimed text on American common law. He has also produced eight one-hour cd lectures on each of the chapters of this book. His e-books on the common law and constitutional liberty (co-authored with Gerald Thompson) are available at www.lonang.com. Dr. Titus is regularly invited to lecture and conduct workshops on American legal and constitutional history before civic groups, church gatherings, and homeschool conferences.

Dr. Titus has appeared as a guest on radio and television shows and, for two years, hosted his own daily radio program, That's The Law, on the VCY America network. He has testified on constitutional issues before the United States Congress. He has also testified on state and federal constitutional issues before several state legislatures. His views on constitutional law have received wide circulation on the Internet and other media, and among members of Congress, state legislatures, and public policy advocates and organizations.
